RUSSIA UNABLE TO PAY HER FOREIGN DEBTS

Moscow, Jan. 15 (By the A. P.) -Until Russia knows what assistance the foreign powers will give toward her re-construction, it is impossible to make a statement about the payment of foreign debts," said Maxim Livinoff, chief of the soviet legations abroad, in a state-ment today.

"Russia now is unable to pay, and cannot estimate her ability to pay in the future unless she learns what outside financial help she will receive. That is a matter for negotiation."

M. Litvinoff's statement was virtually egraphic or wireless communication with Moscow. Furthermore, he said, Italy had not been able to protect the soviet rep-WHEN TRAIN HIT AUTO resentatives in that country from attacks, and that the Russians regarded it as an unsafe place. Lendon, he declared, was a desirable point for the helding of the conference and would be excellent from the standpoint of being a center for communication with their home governments for all the delegations.

ABATEMENT IN STOCK SPECULATION IN GERMANY

Washington, Jan. 15 .- Tension in German financial and industrial circles has lessened somewhat, although the ecoomic situation in that country is practically unchanged, according to a report from Commercial Attache Herring Albertin made public tonight by the commerce department.

The feverish industrial activity and unusual speculation on the stock ex-change, characteristic of a few weeks ago, has abated somewhat, he said, but shortage of coal and raw materials and general increased production costs are making it difficult for industry, while a falling off in orders is noticeable.
